Dear Bethany Campus Community,

A real highlight of my week is conducting enrolment interviews. I really love spending time with the new families, hearing their stories and sharing what Temple is about. It is a really encouraging time and it is exciting how God continues to build our community.

World Vision
I would like to congratulate and thank all the students that were involved in the World Vision 40 Hour Famine. It was an excellent effort. This year the focus is on Rwanda and it was encouraging that some of our students participated in making a difference. We continue to have fundraisers throughout this term, with all funds raised going to our focus project for Term 3 which is World Vision.

Thanksgiving Assembly
This Monday is our Thanksgiving Assembly and will be held at 1.00pm. Parents are very welcome to attend the Assembly and join us for a light Afternoon Tea afterwards. There is so much to be thankful for in God’s provision in our school, and this service acknowledges the contribution made by so many in the life of Temple. I look forward to seeing parents join us for this special occasion.

Parenting Ideas Insights
Separation anxiety and anxiety generally, sadly is a big issue with students today. There are a whole range of issues and experiences that can contribute to a child’s anxiety and this article addresses those, and shares tips on how to minimize a child’s anxiety.

Show Day Holiday
Please take note of the day change from previous years to the last Friday of Show Week, which is Friday September 12.

At our Staff Meeting last week, Marcel shared from Matthew 7:24-27. This is where Jesus speaks about those that listen to His teachings and obey like a person who builds his house on the rock. Though the storms come, floodwaters rise and winds beat against the house, it won’t collapse. It is interesting that Jesus does not say that when we build our house on the rock that we are then above the storm, nor does He state that if a storm might come at least the house will stand firm. The passage indicates that storms will come but that in the midst of those storms we are to trust in Him and remain in Him.

Mathematics Quiz Night

On July 6, our year 8 and 9 students participated in the Mathematics Quiz Night at Trinity College Gawler. This has become an annual event in our school life, due to the positive feedback and increased participation.

It was an awesome night, filled with fun and joy. Well done to all participants!

Book Week

It’s that time of year again! When all the authors come out of their dens, make themselves presentable and go outside to meet their fans. Unfortunately we couldn’t get in an author so we had to do something else.

The theme of Book Week this year was ‘Connect to reading, reading to connect’ so the genius idea of using Lego for our theme was born. The library was decorated with numerous Lego men and posters and strangely enough a Minecraft person (just for the fun of it I guess), all in preparation for this thrilling event.

Each day 10 competitors were given boxes of Lego and had to assemble something that would hopefully impress the judge in the timeslot of 20 minutes. Over the week among the many creations were: the Titanic, a church, an office, a chicken shed, a really tall tower, a robotic chicken and a death machine….

The competitors had heaps of fun and many amazing things were built, although I still think mine is the best (I’m just a little biased).

The winners of the week were:

Tuesday: Alex Berlemon - an Eco-Friendly Drill
Wednesday: Joyce Kurtzer (Yay me!) - Amazing Spaceship Thingy
Thursday: Draw between Simone Wyten - a jousting field and Daniel Stolic - Wacky Racers.
Friday: David A’Court - a Gizmo Car/thing (as Mr. Bothma described it)

Although the week is over, the fun hasn’t quite finished yet as the teachers are yet to battle it out and claim their prize as the best teacher builder.

Joyce Kurtzer  Year 9

Thank you to the staff that took part in our crazy Book Week shenanigans!
Our judge was Miss Joyce Kurtzer, who along with a select group of friends carefully discussed the merits of the various designs before coming to their considered decision. Special mention should be made for the design ‘Romeo and Juliet’ by Miss Candace Nell and the very thought provoking entry by Mr Mauricio Martinez titled ‘Monster TV’. But sadly there can only be one winner and the judges were very impressed by the twin designs of helicopter and windmill by our very own Mrs Kim Van Antwerp. Congratulations again Kim.
