Dear School Family,

At times we experience great joy at the many wonderful events happening in school life and in the midst of this we also experience great sadness.

This last fortnight has been such a time. We have had some great events in the life of the school. The senior drama production “Pride and Prejudice” was exceptional and so entertaining. I was amazed how the students were able to remain in character and keep the audience captivated for the entire show. Well done to all the students and staff involved and especially to Ms Faith Cahill on another exceptional effort and on being able to bring the very best in our students.

It was also great to be able to connect with parents at our recent Year 7 and 8 Breakfast. It is always good to be able to share a nice cup of coffee and spend time having a good discussion with parents.

The Parents and Friends meet twice a term and are a really supportive group. Through their fundraising efforts recently they were able to have a water chiller installed so that students now have access to cooled water and can also fill their drink bottles. I really appreciate the way the Parents and Friends really look to improve the school environment for our students.

We also had our Thanksgiving Assembly this week and we were greatly encouraged by our guests joining us for the occasion. It is so important to continually be thankful for God’s incredible love, grace and provision in the life of the school.

In the midst of all these wonderful events we also mourn the sad passing of our dear Mrs Liz Akeley, a much loved staff member and parent. At next week’s assembly staff and students will have the opportunity to be able to share with the rest of the school community something that was special for them about Mrs Liz Akeley.

A scripture we declared at our Thanksgiving Assembly was: “Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations”. Psalm 100:4-5

In Loving Memory

Liz Akeley
1962—2015
Staff Member and Parent

It is with sadness that we farewell one of our staff members and parent, Liz Akeley, passing away after a short battle with Ovarian Cancer on Saturday, September 5.

Liz will be remembered for her constant smiling face, encouraging words and generous heart.

She will be missed, but we know with assurance that she is now resting in the arms of the Savior she loved, totally healed.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Liz’s husband Corey, and children Lydia, Sarah and James, and also the Clarkson family.

The Akeley and Clarkson families have welcomed staff and students to attend the funeral service which will be conducted at Edwardstown Baptist Church, corner Rothesay Ave and Dorene Street, St Marys, on Saturday, September 12, commencing at 10.30am.

Resting in the arms of Jesus
Senior Drama Production – Pride and Prejudice

The 27, 28 and 29 August saw The Odeon theatre in classy and cosmopolitan Norwood transformed into a glowing and glamorous Austen art gallery, as the Drama faculty performed one of her most popular pieces of literary fiction, Pride and Prejudice.

Always the biggest yearly event on the Drama calendar, the Senior Production is the performance in which the Stage 1 and 2 students are assessed both as on-stage performers and off-stage practitioners and designers. Yet, despite being the Year 11 and 12 production, the stage also showcased the talents of several Year 10 boys, as well as a mass of Year 9 and 10 Drama students, who formed part of the costume, hair, makeup and front-of-house teams. An enormous congratulations also needs to go to two Year 7 boys, Nathaniel Chang and Jacob Adams, who, without any previous experience, sat up in the bio-box and took on all the sound and lighting responsibilities! Without a doubt, these two boys are professional techies in the making!

I’m sure our audiences would agree that the efforts by our students would easily rival that of any amateur theatre company. We were treated to realistic and intuitive acting performances, conceptual and visually striking costumes, set and lighting designs, quirky and comical choreography, and even some originally composed music arrangements. Our attempt to blend the historicity of Austen’s text with the timeless attraction of Pride and Prejudice proved successful, with audiences raving of the uniqueness of our deliberate glamour, soul and spangle.

A huge thank you to the students for your talent, commitment, drive and focus…and of course...‘your compassion for my poor nerves’!

Ms Faith Cahill, Drama Coordinator

2015 Australian Mathematics Competition

On Thursday 30 July, 65 students across all year levels from the Mile End campus took part in the Australian Mathematics Competition. 12 students obtained Proficiency certificates (awarded to students scoring above a certain cut-off figure but not receiving a Credit certificate), 36 students gained Credits (top 50% of their respective year level in SA for Junior and Intermediate sections; top 60% for Seniors), and 15 students received Distinctions (top 15% of their respective year level in SA for Junior and Intermediate sections; top 25% for Seniors).

The following are to be commended for attaining a Distinction Certificate in a very demanding competition.

Year 12: Ryan Matulick (top 19%)

A Year 7 student, Alexander Wabnitz performed with considerable skill and perception to receive a High Distinction (for finishing in the top 2% among all Year 7 participants in South Australia).

Cameron Wilden (Year 8) is also to be congratulated for obtaining the Prudence Award for our school – in correctly answering consecutively the greatest number of questions (first eighteen questions) from the start of the paper.

Eastern Fleurieu Interschool Gymkhana

Thankfully the weather was good for the Eastern Fleurieu Interschool Gymkhana this year. Around 200 horse and rider combinations competed, from some 60 schools around SA, and once again our little team punched above their weight. Temple College’s team of the two Judds – Phoebe, Year 12, and Jackson, Year 10 - dominated the novelty events, taking 2/3 of the ribbons. In show jumping they both rode perfect rounds at 65cm, with good, competitive times, but unfortunately as there were 60 people lined up to ride the 65cm, the higher jumps were cancelled due to time constraints. The Texas Barrel was more competitive this year, and both our team competed with good times, the horses enjoying the good fast gallop. In the parade our horses were calm and relaxed, and presented beautifully, with Phoebe and Jackson both grinning broadly as they bowed to the judges. Smiles are not common at this point and our team’s friendly nature and sense of enjoyment has always made them a stand out as they present against other schools. As the sun started to go down it became cold very quickly so we decided not to wait for final results. It is an honour to represent Temple Christian College in the equestrian community, and we’d like to encourage other riders to come and talk to us about joining our team.

Mrs. Judd, Parent

Touch Football

On Thursday 27th August the year 11 Sport and Recreation class competed in the Touch SA, Mixed Touch Football carnival. For the past 5 weeks leading into the carnival the class has been learning and refining their Touch Football skills as part of their practical component. During the first game the team played against the eventual winners of the day, Tyndale, where they convincingly lost. However, to the credit of the team they were able to bounce back from their defeat and play a defensively good game for the remainder of the carnival. It was not until the last game against Sacred Heart, that we were able to win our first game. Congratulations to Sam Hodge, Josh Heading and Jason Fast who scored a try. A special mention goes to Lily Foster, Emily Malcom and Tracey Mahood who played the entire day without any substitution, as the team required three girls on the field at all times. Well done to all students involved it was a great day!

Miss Emily Hyde, Sports Coordinator

Congratulations to Dacia Schaefer (Student Mentor) and Joel Estridge on their marriage on Saturday, September 29. Dacia and Joel will be living in England.
